

Cruise to International Waters

2010 Adult Summer Reading Program

(ages 18 and up)

June 1–July 31

Sign up for a voyage aboard the S.S. Louisville by participating in the Louisville Public Library's summer reading program. We will chart our course into international waters and journey to new lands and cultures. Read or listen to books by authors with an international connection or from other cultures; attend library programs; and complete coupon entries for prizes.

TO GET STARTED:

- Pick up your reading log, contest entry coupons, and booklists at the Adult Services Desk
- Turn in your coupons for weekly prize drawings
- Turn in your reading log by July 29 to be eligible for our Grand Prizes

SPECIAL EVENTS (first-floor Meeting Room):

Saturday, June 12 @ 7:00 pm, Family Movie Night (all ages welcome)

"Surf's Up" (PG), Animation; featuring voices of Shia LaBeouf, Zooey Deschanel, & Jon Heder. This is the kick-off event for all Summer Reading Program participants. Popcorn will be served!

Thursday, June 24 @ 7:00 pm

"Ancestral Puebloans of the American Southwest" Richard Grant returns with a brand new slide program focusing on the culture of the Anasazi in New Mexico. Featured are Chaco Canyon, the Zuni reservation, numerous pueblos, fabulous rock art, beautiful Pueblo pottery and carvings, and a Navaho rug auction.

Thursday, July 15 @ 7:00 pm, Author visit and book signing

Local author, Carol Turner, will talk about her new book, "Forgotten Heroes and Villains of Sand Creek." Books will be available for purchase and signing.
